Smiles to Go - Read book online - 24symbols

Jerry Spinelli writes in fast-moving prose filled with images that really speak. Smiles to Go is a delightful novel, an interesting read about very real characters. It will resonant with the majority of young, mainstream, middle class America who might wonder if they are a little too vanilla or unexciting to get the attention of peers and teachers, but may need a book that is about them, too.

Smiles To Go book by Jerry Spinelli

With his most recent novel, Smiles To Go, Spinelli returns to a format similar to that of his highly popular book Stargirl, to tell a story about science and wonder, friendship and jealousy, and family and love. Ninth grader Will Tuppence is a (young) man of Science. His world revolves around physics, protons, stargazing, and Monopoly pizza parties.

As a long-time Jerry Spinelli fan, I was truly excited when given the chance to review his latest, SMILES TO GO. If you loved MANIC MAGEE or WRINGER, be sure to take a look at this one. Will Tuppence is a typical freshman. He is worried about skateboarding, his annoying little sister, and hanging with his friends, Mi-Su and BT.
